

Supervisor feedback – Population trends essay

A 1st I think, though a bit more evidence could have been packed in. You could be broader in your conceptual approach - how treatment of the issue has changed and home in on general consensus. But the big issue is whether the population was in equilibrium c. 1300- 48.

A few factual inaccuracies and Poston's relation to Malthus needs a bit of attention.